

AMERICA Needs an Economy That Works for Everyone...

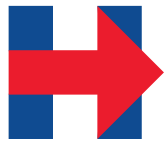

...NOT JUST THOSE AT THE TOP

HILLARY CLINTON:

Putting Families First

HILLARY CLINTON has spent her entire life working to help children and families, and serving our country. As President, Hillary will continue to put families first and focus on building an economy that works for everyone, not just those at the top.

- Simplify and cut taxes for small businesses so they can hire new workers and grow.
- Provide companies with incentives to share profits with their employees through bonuses and pay raises.
- A jobs plan in the first 100 days that makes the boldest investment in good-paying jobs since World War II.
